

BATTLE RAGING
ALONG FRONTIER

Fighting Is General on Turco-Montenegrin Border.

HOSPITALS ARE OVERFLOWING

Heartrending Scenes at Podgoritz as Streams of Wounded Men Pour In. Turkish Fort Which Dominates Scutari From the South Is Taken. Losses of Both Armies in Battle of Ditchich Are Placed at One Thousand.

London, Oct. 12.—The Turkish losses in the battle of Ditchich mountain were 600 and those of the Montenegrins 400, according to a dispatch to the Standard from Cetinje.

Montenegrin Headquarters, Podgoritz, Oct. 12.—The battle following the capture by the Montenegrin forces of the Turkish position on Ditchich mountain and the fort on Schipchink hill, dominating the town of Tushli, continues. The fighting is now general along almost the whole extent of the Turco-Montenegrin frontier.

General Martinovich with the southern army is operating with success against the extremely strong Turkish fortress of Taraboch, which dominates Scutari from the south. The Montenegrins captured the Turkish Fort Rogame, near Tushli.

The hospitals here are overflowing with wounded men brought in from the battlefield. King Nicholas visited the hospitals and kissed upon their foreheads the dead and badly wounded men. Afterwards he addressed the wounded in tones of deep emotion, saying that he thanked all of his brave troops in the name of the fatherland. Prince Mirko, second son of King Nicholas, personally carried several wounded men into the hospital.

The scenes in Podgoritz are heartrending. More than 6,000 Malissori tribesmen have revolted from Turkish authority and are attacking from the rear of the Turkish army which is opposing the Montenegrins.

Several hundred of the Malissori tribesmen have arrived here to obtain arms.

HINT AT GRAFT IN ENGLAND

Commons Committee Will Probe Wireless Contract.

London, Oct. 12.—A heated debate on the British government's contract with the Marconi Wireless company for the establishment of an imperial wireless service took place in the house of commons.

Attorney General Sir Rufus Isaacs, Postmaster General Herbert Samuel and Chancellor of the Exchequer David Lloyd-George denied that they had profited by the government's contract with Marconi.

Several newspapers had demanded an investigation and had strongly hinted that corruption underlay the remarkable rise in the price of Marconi shares from $3.75 to $45 before the public knew of the agreement.

Several members of parliament attacked the government for making a contract without giving other wireless systems a chance to tender for it.

A committee has been appointed to investigate the matter.

BRYAN POKES FUN
AT CANDIDATES

Nebraskan Declares Taft and Roosevelt are Alike.

GIVES PERSONAL GUARANTEE

In the Course of Fourteen Addresses in Minnesota the Commoner Says Governor Wilson Is the Man for the Presidency—Speaking at St. Paul and Minneapolis Bryan Says Taft Is Not a Factor in the Race.

St. Paul, Oct. 12.—In a series of fourteen speeches scattered across the map of Minnesota William J. Bryan poked fun at President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt without partiality, asserting that on fundamentals Taft and Roosevelt are agreed, laughed at the Chicago Republican convention and gave his personal guarantee of the fitness of Governor Wilson for the presidency.

His fourteenth and last address was delivered in the St. Paul Auditorium and the commoner, immediately after, boarded a train for Mason City, Ia. A crowd numbering 4,000 ignored the rain and gave Mr. Bryan his most enthusiastic reception of his Minnesota tour when he spoke in the Auditorium.

In both St. Paul and Minneapolis the commoner pointed out that President Taft is not a factor in the race. At the Auditorium he apologized for devoting so much of his time to an attack upon the president.

"I've spent too much time upon Mr. Taft," said he, "but I didn't want any friend of his to think I didn't know he was a presidential candidate."

About Governor Wilson, Mr. Bryan had not a great deal to say. His reference to the Democratic nominee in his St. Paul address occupied scarcely three minutes of a talk that lasted more than an hour. He recommended the New Jersey governor to the people as fit for progressive leadership.

Mr. Bryan's personal guarantee of the Democratic nominee brought rounds of applause. However, before the commoner arrived there was a noticeable difference in the degree of warmth that greeted the mention of the names of Governor Wilson and Mr. Bryan by state candidates who made short addresses. A eulogy of Mr. Bryan brought spontaneous enthusiasm; for the Democratic presidential candidate there was applause, but it lacked spontaneity.

The Auditorium audience roared with laughter when Mr. Bryan turned his guns upon the Republican convention at Chicago and pictured the operation of the "steam roller."

"I went to Chicago partly because I was afraid the Baltimore convention would be tame," said he. "I had been in the habit of having one exciting presidential convention in four years and I didn't want to lose the effect on my system of this quadrennial stimulant. I told them when I applied for a ticket to the press section that I wouldn't say anything worse about either of the candidates than they had said about each other. That gave me considerable leeway."

"The Chicago convention," continued the commoner, "began like a tragedy and ended like a comedy. At first I was afraid they were going to kill each other; then I was afraid they would not. When the piece of improved machinery known as the 'steam roller' got down to work those run over felt almost as good as those who ran over them. Everything became peaceful and tranquil."

"The Chicago convention," continued the commoner, "began like a tragedy and ended like a comedy. At first I was afraid they were going to kill each other; then I was afraid they would not. CABINET WILL SPELLBIND

Several Members to Take Stump for President.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Several members of the cabinet will enter the political campaign with speeches on behalf of President Taft in the closing weeks of the contest.

In addition to a week's tour in Missouri, Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel will speak in Pennsylvania Oct. 23 and 24; Cleveland, Oct. 26; Buffalo, Oct. 26; Rochester, Oct. 28, and Syracuse, Oct. 29.

If the arguments in the intermountain cases in the supreme court, which begin next week, are completed in time Attorney General Wickersham also will make several campaign speeches.

Secretary Stimson will speak in New York and Secretary Knox on the Pacific coast and it is expected that Secretary MacVeagh may make one or two speeches.

Son of Wisconsin Justice Killed. Milwaukee, Oct. 12.—Cecil Timlin, a railroad fireman, son of State Supreme Justice Timlin, was scalded to death by the explosion of his engine with another in the West Milwaukee freight yards.

CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS.

Former Vice President Will Speak for Taft.

FAIRBANKS GOING ON TOUR

Former Vice President Will Begin Speeches Monday.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Former Vice President Fairbanks will begin his speech-making tour for the Republican national ticket at Benton Harbor, Mich., Monday, it was announced by the Republican national committee here.

From Michigan he will go to Wisconsin, speaking at Fond du Lac Tuesday and Kenosha Wednesday. He will be at Galesburg, Ill., for a meeting Thursday. Friday and Saturday he will speak at Iowa City and Marengo, Ia. He will make a three-day tour in Missouri with a special train carrying several other speakers and a band.

SAYS PERKINS IS BACK OF PROGRAM

Governor Wilson Attacks Progressives and Republicans.

Cleveland, Oct. 12.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, in developing his argument that "the thought of the leading men of the United States Steel corporation is behind the third party program with regard to the regulation of trusts," drew attention to what he termed "a very significant fact" that George W. Perkins "is himself back of the program."

The Democratic nominee recalled that Mr. Perkins had once "disclosed in investigations before congress his whole thought" about establishing industrial commissions to regulate monopoly.

The governor spoke at Canton, the home of McKinley, and at Arville and Cleveland. Besides the attack in his speeches on the trust plank of the Progressive party he paid tribute to the memory of President McKinley.

"The regular Republicans say they are opposed to monopoly," the governor said, "but when they come to speak of the methods of restraining it they chiefly indulge in a narrative of what they have already done, which we know to have been ineffectual; and when the third party takes up this side of the difficulty what do they do?"

They propose to leave things as they are and subject them to supervision of an industrial commission and we know what that industrial commission is expected to do. It is a very significant fact that George W. Perkins is himself back of this program, not because I would intimate to you any corrupt or improper influence, for I would not."

ASTOR TAX OF $3,150,000 PAID

Temporary Payment Made to Get Rebate of 5 Per Cent.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 12.—A check for $3,150,000 was received by State Comptroller Schomer in payment of the advanced inheritance tax on the estate of the late Colonel John Jacob Astor, who perished on the Titanic.

The temporary tax was paid to obtain a 5 per cent rebate allowed by law, if the tax is paid within six months after the death of the decedent. This rebate is equivalent to $155,000.

The payment of the $3,150,000 is the largest inheritance tax paid on a single estate since the enactment of the law twenty-seven years ago.

AGAIN ATTACKS ROOSEVELT

La Follette Says Colonel Promised Him Support.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 12.—La Follette's Weekly Magazine contains the second of a series of articles on the Progressive campaign, in which Senator La Follette charges that Theodore Roosevelt, although at first he did not believe President Taft could be defeated for nomination in the Republican national convention and had urged La Follette as the progressive candidate, later changed his mind when he came to realize the extent of the progressive movement and wrested the now party's support from the Wisconsin senator.

SIDE LIGHTS ON THE CAMPAIGN

How One Democrat Beat Two Whigs.

STORIES ABOUT BILL SULZER.

He and Job Hedges Born in Same Town—Former Senator Scott Bewails the Passing of the Good Old Days—Senator Clapp Is Filling an Embarrassing Role.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 12.—[Special.]—A Republican of prominence who wants Taft re-elected told a story the other day illustrating his ideas of the present political situation. Years ago, before the civil war, he said, a Democrat was elected in a strong Whig district in Kentucky. It caused great surprise, for that district had never elected any one but a Whig.

When the Democrat arrived in Washington he was questioned about it. "You must have been personally very popular in that district," some one remarked to him. "I don't want to talk about my personal popularity or brag about it," he replied, "but, by gad, I beat two Whigs in that district, and I could have beaten three if they had put 'em up."

The conclusion was that Wilson was likely to beat two Republicans in the presidential race, counting Roosevelt as a Republican.

Bill Sulzer.

When Bill Sulzer first went to the New York legislature he was elected with the opposition of Boss Croker. In the assembly he had difficulties with the speaker and was brought before him and censured. "That is all right," Mr. Speaker, remarked Sulzer. "At the next session I will be where you are, and you will be a humble member on the floor." And Sulzer was right. He was elected the next speaker.

For a long time Sulzer was the ranking minority member of the committee on military affairs of the house. One day, with a New York constituent, he called upon Secretary Root in the war department. The meek undersecretary stepped into Root's private office and soon returned. "The secretary is engaged, but I think he will see you after awhile."

Sulzer thrust his right hand inside the bosom of his coat and struck an oratorical attitude. "Tell the secretary of war," he said in deep, measured tones, "that the ranking minority member of the committee on military affairs desires to see him now." The undersecretary hurried away and returned at once and ushered the New Yorker and his friend into Root's office.

"If I Am Elected."

When Roosevelt was before the investigating committee he several times used the words "If I am elected," and they struck the inquiring mind of a number of people, because they implied in tone that he expected to be elected.

Scott's Explanation.

Former Senator Scott of West Virginia, always an opponent of the civil service system, explains the necessity of large campaign funds by saying: "In the days before the civil service men worked for politics and because they hoped they might be rewarded. In these days there is no reward, for there are no places. In a campaign the man who lights up the schoolhouse for a political meeting or the man who furnishes the hall, the man who gets out the handbills, the man who gets out the band, all have to be paid out of a general campaign fund."

"The boys will not get out and bustle hoping that they will get an office for their trouble. They know they won't, and everything must be paid for in spot cash. Even the little campaign orators will not talk for nothing with the hope of something in the future. There is nothing for them."

Elizabeth on the Map.

The man from Elizabeth, N. J., came to town the other day and wrote his name and the name of his town in large letters and then proceeded to talk and brag about his town. And he had a right to boast. Elizabeth, N. J., is the birthplace of Job Hedges, Republican nominee for governor of New York, and of William Sulzer, Democratic nominee for governor of New York. Great is Elizabeth. Old Queen Bess ought to turn over in her grave and take notice of her namesake.

"Mose" Clapp in a Hole.

It was rather hard that Dixon, the campaign manager, and Roosevelt, the principal, should have so severely criticized the management of the campaign investigation, particularly when Chairman Clapp assumed full responsibility for the layout of the work which brought the Progressive campaign into the limelight. Clapp is the only man on the committee who is supporting Roosevelt. While the committee was thus severely criticized it was Clapp who had to stand for it.

Parcels Post Plans.

Under the present parcels post law something must be done, although the actual establishment of the system has been postponed. At present the details of the law are being worked out in the department with a view of recommending additional legislation which will make the law operative. There will have to be more legislation before the machinery will move.

BOSTON WINS FOURTH GAME

American League Team Defeats New York Nationals.

New York, Oct. 12.—The Bostonians, pennant winners of the American league, were victors over the New York National league champions by a score of 3 to 1 in the fourth game of the series. The New York team won one game, the second contest having ended in a tie.

Some 35,000 persons jammed in the confines of the Brush stadium saw excellent baseball in a contest that thrilled throughout. The two teams played in their true form and the nervousness shown in the early contests was not observed.

WARSHIPS EXTEND FOR FIFTEEN MILES

Flower of American Navy Is Anchored in the Hudson.

New York, Oct. 12.—The flower of the United States navy lies at anchor on the Hudson river, an armada whose like has never been assembled in the Western world before. For fifteen miles—from the armored cruiser Tennessee, off Thirtieth street, to the Ajax, last of the fuel ships, far north of Spuyten Duyvil creek—it stretches in a double line.

Simultaneously with the mobilization here there will be a mobilization at Manila of available warships of the Asiatic fleet.

Perhaps never again will such an aggregation of sea fighters be assembled. Some naval authorities predict that the limit of big battleship construction is fast being reached. A few years hence may find the navies of the world relying on the smaller ships in greater numbers.

One hundred and twenty-seven ships of war of all classes, with a total displacement of 741,590 tons, have been picked for this mobilization. Officers and crews total approximately 28,000 persons.

Rear Admiral Hugo Osterhaus is in command of the entire fleet. His flagship, the Wyoming, heads the battleship division.

HATTERS LOSE DANBURY SUIT

Verdict Given Firm for $240,000 Under Sherman Law.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 12.—A verdict for $80,000 and costs was awarded for the plaintiffs, D. E. Lowe & Co. of Danbury, against members of the United Hatters Union of North America in the United States district court. Under the Sherman anti-trust law this award will be trebled, making the total amount $240,000.

It took the jury four hours to reach the decision, most of the time being spent in examining the expense account of the plaintiffs. The verdict is for the full amount sought.

The case has been before the court for nine years, during which time it has gone to the United States court of appeals twice and once to the United States supreme court.

GIANT WAVE HITS CRAFT

Two Seamen on Submarine Are Swept to Death.

Watsonville, Cal., Oct. 12.—G. A. Schroeder of Milwaukee and T. J. Turbett of Newark, N. J., seamen on board the United States submarine FI, were drowned when a giant wave swept over the little craft, which later went aground near Port Watsonville. The extent of the damage to the submarine could not be determined. Low tide left it upright in the sand in three feet of water.

The Mayflower will not reach New York until Monday, for the president expects to spend Saturday night and the greater part of Sunday at Wood's Holl, Mass., with W. Cameron Forbes, governor general of the Philippines, who is in the United States on a vacation.

CHICAGO IS SWEEPED
BY SEVERE STORM

Several Persons Are Killed and Many Injured.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—The city was swept by a severe electrical storm, accompanied by a downpour of rain. The storm took a heavy toll of death and accidents in its passing.

Valentine Fleming, a manufacturer's agent, blinded by the lightning, tripped over a chain that was holding up the heavy iron cover of a coal hole in front of a hotel. Fleming fell across the hole, and the iron cover, descending on his body, cut him nearly in two. He was taken to a hospital in a dying condition.

Charles J. Mitchell, eighty-four years old, was fatally injured when struck by an electric brougham.

Julius Abel, fifty-four years old, a hotel guest, was killed by an attack of heart failure following a tremendous peal of thunder.

Antonio Gereke, twenty-nine years old, was killed by a suburban passenger train when he attempted to cross the tracks at a downtown station during the worst of the rain.

EXPLOSIONS IN THE WEST

Subject of Evidence in Dynamite Conspiracy Trial.

Indianapolis, Oct. 12.—J. B. Brice, Chicago, the name James B. McNamara used to disguise his intention to cause explosions on the Pacific coast, and particularly in Los Angeles, Cal., formed an important point in the testimony at the dynamite conspiracy trial.

The government indicated it would go thoroughly into the explosions in the West, possibly throwing light on the mysterious disappearances of Caplan and Schmitt, who were indicted in Los Angeles county on a charge of murder, but were never discovered. Government agents have received information that Caplan was killed.

Witnesses, reading from hotel registers, testified concerning the alleged movements of McNamara, Schmitt, Caplan and Olaf A. Tveitmo of San Francisco. McNamara's whereabouts were accounted for by the name Brice written on the registers.

Roosevelt Says He Is Sorry Senator Opposes Him.

DEFENDS HIS TARIFF RECORD

Speaking at Oshkosh, Wis., Colonel Roosevelt Asserts Governor Wilson's Only Chance Lies in the Support of the Reactionaries—Says Progressives Will Only Spend About $350,000 in Present Campaign.

Oshkosh, Wis., Oct. 12.—A defense of his record on the tariff question and an attack on Woodrow Wilson's position were made here by Colonel Roosevelt. Governor Wilson, he said, had been the hope of the Progressives, but had changed his attitude and "at present his sole chance lies in the support of the reactionaries."

Here, in Senator La Follette's own state, the colonel discussed, for the first time in his campaign, the senator's opposition to him. He replied to Senator La Follette's attacks by taking up a number of points on which the senator has based his criticism of the former president. He expressed regret that the senator had ranged himself against the Progressive party and quoted from a speech last year in the senate in which Mr. La Follette eulogized him.

Colonel Roosevelt said that the Progressive party's campaign fund this year would be less than half the fund of either the Democratic or the Republican party. The Progressives, he said, are planning on a basis that would involve the expenditure of about $350,000.

The colonel reached Oshkosh at the end of a journey from St. Paul, during which, in spite of rain, crowds met him at every station to hear him speak from the rear platform. The meeting was held in a warehouse. Two halls had been engaged but it was found they would seat only a part of the crowd.

Cheered for Several Minutes.

Colonel Roosevelt was cheered for several minutes when he appeared on the platform.

"It has been a matter of regret to me that Senator La Follette, who has done so much for the Progressive cause, has felt that because of his antagonism to me he must range himself against the Progressive movement in this campaign, thereby giving his old time enemies, the reactionaries, a much needed support, which they have acknowledged by the first praise they have given him in twenty years."

"It has been asserted that I did not take sides with La Follette people in their campaign in Wisconsin in 1904. This is an error."

Colonel Roosevelt then read from a letter he wrote in 1904 to George B. Cortelyou, then chairman of the national Republican committee, in which he said no favoritism must be shown to the "stalwarts" in Wisconsin.

In his speeches and writings, he said, he had praised Senator La Follette's work; and until he became a candidate last year the senator had never spoken of him publicly save in terms of approval. He quoted Senator La Follette as saying in a speech in April, 1907, that Colonel Roosevelt should have another term. From the senator's speech in the senate in July of last year the colonel read several extracts in which Mr. La Follette commended him highly.

Secretary Fisher Says He Now Has a Definite Idea of Relief.

Seattle, Oct. 12.—Secretary of the Interior Fisher, who arrived here from Honolulu, left for San Francisco to attend the annual convention of superintendents of the national parks to be held at Yosemite Park next week. Concerning his mission to Honolulu, Secretary Fisher said:

"I was sent to the island by President Taft to investigate charges filed against Governor Walter F. Frear by Delegate to Congress Jonah Kalaniano'ole, who sought to prevent the reapportionment of the governor, and who alleged misconduct in the administration of the government."

"The principal men of the islands gave me their views, as well as the homesteaders and all persons with grievances and grievances, and the result is that I have a definite idea of what ought to be done."

LUBEN IMPLICATES BECKER

Witness Says Officer Threatened to Kill Rosenthal.

New York, Oct. 12.—The first testimony implicating former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker in the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, was given at the trial of Becker. It was testified by Maurice Luben, a hanger on of the underworld, that Becker had said to Jack Rose about three weeks before the murder, "If that ——— Rosenthal is not crooked I will croak him myself."

Luben, the eyewitness of the murder, identified in court Gyp the Blood and Lefty Louie as two of the men who fired the shots that killed Rosenthal and William Shapiro as driver of the murder car. Gyp the Blood and Lefty Louie he had known for more than a year, he said.

years and would not miss his tramp in the woods for anything in the world. On this occasion they bagged chickens and ducks and Mr. Weed distinguished himself by shooting two bears. As Mr. Weed has seen many bears on La Salle and Jackson streets, he was not afraid of the Minnesota kind.

Services Sunday Evening

TO LEAVE FOR MINNEAPOLIS

Preaches to His Own Congregation
Sunday Morning at Methodist Episcopal Church

The last two messages to Brainerd people by the Rev. Charles Fox Davis will be delivered tomorrow morning and evening in this city; in the morning to his own congregation at the First Methodist Episcopal church, and in the evening at the First Congregational church at 7:30. Through the courtesy of the clergymen and the congregations of the north side, Rev. Davis will have the privilege of addressing a union meeting, the First Baptist church and the First Congregational church joining and each church furnishing a part of the musical program.

The First Congregational church is one of the most commodious churches in the city and was offered that it might accommodate the people of Brainerd who might wish to hear the last message of Mr. Davis before he leaves for his new home in Minneapolis.

The Rev. George Phil Sheridan, pastor of the First Congregational church, and the Rev. R. E. Cody, pastor of the First Baptist church will assist in the services.

The Rev. Mr. Davis is much pleased with the kindness extended to him by the sister churches in affording him an opportunity to address this larger congregation. He is announced to preach on the "Fleeing and the Abiding," and a most hearty invitation is extended to all to attend this evening service.

On Monday evening his own church will extend to him a farewell reception to which a general invitation is extended to all. He and his family will leave Brainerd for Minneapolis on Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

ORELAND FACES GLOWING FUTURE

Cuyler Adams, Father of Cuyuna Range, Becomes Identified With the Town of Oreland

ADAMS MINE IMPROVEMENTS

The Adams Mine Near Oreland is to Become the Best Equipped Mine on the Range

Cuyler Adams, well known as the father of the Cuyuna Iron range, has become identified with the town of Oreland. This is one of the greatest announcements made in the history of the townsite of Oreland. It means that the man who discovered the range, who more than any other man assisted and is assisting in its development, who is the president of the Orelands Mining Co., controlling the Kennedy mine at Cuyuna; the president of the Cuyuna Northern railway, the president of the Crow Wing Mining company and interested in the Adams mine and numerous other mines at and near Oreland, has thrown the weight of his influence to the town of Oreland and there is now assurance of the most definite nature that Oreland will be the only town in this most productive section of the south range.

A deal has been perfected whereby 20 acres owned by Mr. Adams are to be platted and become a part of the townsite. This section of lots lies between the present platted town and the Cuyuna Northern railway.

The Adams mine near by will be made the model mine of the Cuyuna Iron range. Buildings of the most modern design will be constructed. The machine shop will be of brick, the building measuring 50 by 120 feet in size. The power house, "dry" or change room and other structures will soon be erected. Three boilers arrived at the shaft Tuesday and will soon be placed in position. Ledge is now only a few feet away and the cement shaft will soon be completed.

Oreland is assured of a fine depot and construction will soon be commenced on the building.

C. F. Engstrom, the contractor, has commenced building a two story store with a full basement on lot 20 block 10, south of the Oreland hotel.

Pete Moe is clearing the streets in Park addition and has them partly graded. Many lots have been sold and quite a few buildings have been built in this addition, which is to be primarily one of homes.

The Oreland hotel will soon be completed. The Brainerd Brewing company, which owns the building, has many inquiries and applications for the hotel.

Oreland certainly faces a great future and the sale of lots has been stimulated by the active work carried on at the townsite, the Adams mine, the drills, the railway and most of all by the interest shown in Oreland by Mr. Cuyler Adams.

THE RELATION OF MUSIC TO LIFE

Address Delivered By Mrs. W. C. Cobb at State Federation of Womens Convention

Perhaps no club in the state is better fitted to speak on the relation of music to life than the Brainerd Musical club for the simple reason that it is trying the experiment of bringing music into close, practical relationship with life.

When speaking of our civic and literary work to a member of another club, she exclaimed: "A musical departmental club! as if that were a paradox. But why should it be? Do we not need a large experience of life to faithfully interpret the music of the Masters?"

Carlyle and Maeterlinck, tho' they differ greatly in their manner of saying it both declare that music has a meaning too deep to be put into words. To sound these depths one needs deep sympathy, broad culture and a keen insight into the problems of life. Too many so-called musicians lack at least one of these. That our members might not be among that number we decided to matriculate in the greatest university for sociological research of modern times viz: the Federation of Womens clubs.

We paid our first tuition fee in 1907, and our treasurer's book is the best evidence of how our sympathies have broadened during our five years' course. Few, indeed, are the worthy objects toward which our club has not contributed, and in the fight against tuberculosis our women are in the van guard. Last winter, our worthy president bore from the Red Cross field the prize of a vacuum cleaner.

In order that we might not neglect the cultural side of life, we have added a Travel Class. By proxy we have gleaned from the treasure stores of Europe, the best art, architecture and literature without neglecting to study the life of the people, and this year, we have planned a trip to Mexico and Panama. Realizing, however, that the highest culture expresses itself in service to the community, we added a Civic Committee to our numerous standing committees. Naturally, their first attention was directed towards civic house cleaning and, thus far, they have confined their attentions to the streets but we trust that during the coming year they will work for both civic cleanliness and civic righteousness.

Believing in the educational and moral value of the best drama, our executive board voted last spring, to take under its wing, a drama club, some of whose members felt, that more practical work could be done for the uplift of the theatre, if they were allied with a stronger organization. No further steps have been taken by the Drama club to become a part of the Musical club, but I mention this, to show the broad liberal spirit of our executive board, who by this action proved, that they were perfectly willing to mother an "art-chick" of a different brood.

But do not these other interests encroach upon and crowd out music? I hear some jealous devotee of the art inquire. On the contrary as each member of the different departments is obliged to support the mother club, and, as the addition of these branches has doubled our membership, it has insured larger audiences for our artists recitals and has made possible a higher class of entertainments.

It has also enabled us to purchase a Steinway Grand piano. That our interest in music is not flagging is proved by the fact that last year's fortnightly programs were the best in the history of the club, according to the testimony of some of the charter members.

But the surest evidence of the value of our purely musical work is the improving taste of Brainerd audiences. In this particular, the club is doing for Brainerd just what the Minneapolis and St. Paul Symphony orchestras have done for the Twin Cities—the difference being merely one of degree.

But while their influence is necessarily confined within the boundaries of their art, ours extends to all

STATE PRIMARY LAW IS UPHELD

Special to Dispatch:

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 12—The state supreme court today upheld the constitutionality of the statewide primary law when it refused C. W. Brandberg, socialist-labor candidate for governor, a place on the ticket. Brandberg failed to receive the required number of votes under the new law.

the educational and cultural activities of our city. This was well illustrated last spring when the question of having the University Chautauqua presented to the Commercial club.

One of the leading members said: "Find out what the Musical club will do. Unless they back it there's no use trying to swing it."

It is scarcely necessary to add that we had the Chautauqua. In short, the Brainerd Musical club is proving in a very practical and efficient manner, that music may be closely related to all of the activities of life, and we invite you all to come next year and see for yourselves just how we are working out this problem."

CONNIE MACK'S PRAISE

Leader of the Athletics Predicts Much for Bush—Will Develop Into Great Twirler

Daily Missoulian—Frank T. Jones, the local sporting authority and hat doctor, yesterday received a letter from Connie Mack, the leader of the Philadelphia Americans. In his letter Mr. Gillilush speaks very highly of Leslie Bush, the young smoke artist sold to Philadelphia by Missoula. He says that Bush will develop into a wonderful pitcher. Such comment coming from a man of Connie Mack's ability looks like the Brainerd boy was surely due for the top of the heap.

In regard to the world series, Connie speaks most emphatically. He can see nothing but Boston and says it would be a great disappointment to him if the Americans would lose out. Here's the letter:

Mr. Frank T. Jones,
The Hat Box,
Missoula, Mont.

My Dear Mr. Jones:—Yours of September 30th received and am pleased to hear from you. Note what you say about Bush. This player should develop into a wonderful pitcher. While the New York club batted him pretty hard, I feel confident that it will only be a short time before he will class with the best. Would surely like to land a few more like him. Looks to me like the Boston Americans for the world series. They are a great ball team and will be sadly disappointed if they should lose out, which to me seems impossible.

Wishing you every success, I remain,
Yours truly,
Connie Mack.

Ferguson in his column entitled "As It Looks" says: "Well, we were always strong for that Bush boy. We always did think Connie knew a lot about baseball and we're sure strong for him now. He's a sapient cuss all right."

Shepherd of the Hills
"The Shepherd of the Hills," Harold Bell Wright's novel, which holds the record for being the largest selling American work of fiction, has been made into a play by its author with the assistance of Elsbeth W. Reynolds. It will be given its first production in this city at the Brainerd opera house commencing Monday, October 14th. The play is a story of the Ozark mountains and its people are all of that vicinity, which promises stage characters out of the ordinary. The production, which has been made by Messrs. Gaskill and MacVitty, is said to be one of extreme beauty, this picturesque mountain country lending itself to the best in the scenic artist's art.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL
Health is Worth Saving, and Some Brainerd People Know How to Save it

Many Brainerd people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Brainerd citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. George W. Hall, 623 Third Ave., Brainerd, Minn., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills highly for I know them to be a good kidney medicine. They have always relieved me when I have had any trouble caused by my kidneys and have proven beneficial in every way. Other members of my family have taken Doan's Kidney Pills procured at any drug store with the most satisfactory results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
